8. Ph.D. Course Work

1. After provisional admission into the Ph.D. programme, all the registered candidates shall take up the Ph.D. course work in the respective Departments of the University for a period of one semester and this is compulsory for both full-time as well as part-time candidates. However, a candidate with an M.Phil. degree done in regular mode is exempted from the Ph.D. course work and the Ph.D. course work examination, provided that they have undergone the same course work in M.Phil.

2. All candidates admitted into the Ph.D. programme shall be required to complete the course work prescribed by the department during initial semester. The course work examination (Pre-Ph.D.) has to be cleared before the Seminar II (Pre-Submission seminar).
3. The research activity of all the scholars in a department shall be monitored from time-to-time by the Department Research Committee (DRC) duly constituted by the university consisting of the following members:

a) Head of the Department - Chairperson
b) Research Supervisors in the Department - Members
c) Chairperson, Board of Studies concerned - Member Convener

4. The Candidates registered for the Ph.D. programme on full-time basis shall be available in the Department throughout the programme and the Head of the Department shall maintain their attendance in the department. The candidates registered on part-time basis should be in regular contact with the concerned Supervisor.

5. All the admitted candidates have to undergo a course work of one semester as per the syllabus prescribed by the concerned department.

6. As per the recent UGC Guidelines, a Course Work of one Semester is compulsory. The Course work for the Ph.D. Programme therefore shall include two theory papers:

   Paper 1: Research Methodology (100 Marks): Common to all the candidates admitted in a Department. The syllabus of this paper includes the research techniques/methods of the concerned subject.

   Paper 2: Broad Field of Specialization (100 marks): The syllabus of this paper includes the current concepts/trends in the concerned specialization of the subject.

   The candidate has to appear for an examination – (the Ph.D. course work examination) in these two papers which have a weightage of 100 marks each.

7. Each theory paper shall have 60 contact hours of classes.

8. The Faculty for these classes is arranged by the Head of the concerned Department.

9. Both full-time and part-time research scholars shall have to attend a minimum of 75% classes in each paper to be eligible to appear for the Ph.D. course work examination.
10. The candidates who could not attend a minimum of 75% of the classes in each of the courses shall not be eligible to appear for the Ph.D. course work examination and they have to attend the classes again along with the next batch of students.

11. The candidates are required to pass in these two papers; the minimum marks required for a pass in each course shall be 55%. In case a candidate fails to pass in two attempts for both the subjects put together, his admission shall be cancelled. Payment of exam fees for writing Pre-Ph.D. (either for one or both papers) and inability to write the exam is also deemed as an attempt. Pre-Ph.D. exam fees are same whether the candidate is appearing for two papers or one paper at a time. The Pre-Ph.D. hall ticket will be issued by examination cell two days before the scheduled exam, subject to the condition that the payment of tuition fees is up to date (The candidate has to register for both the subjects at a time).

12. Generally the Pre-Ph.D. examination shall be held twice in a year. The conduct of these examinations, declarations of results, and preparation of marks lists will be carried out by the Office of the Controller of Exams, PU.

9. Ph.D. Course Work Examination and Evaluation of Answer Scripts

d) The Chairperson-BoS, shall communicate the syllabi to the Controller of Examinations for the purpose of conducting the Ph.D. course work examination.

e) The Chairperson-BoS shall arrange for the evaluation of the answer scripts. The Ph.D. course work examination is of three-hour duration and is for 100 marks per theory paper. Each answer script is assessed by two examiners (one internal Course Teacher and another External Examiner). The marks awarded to the answer script shall be the average of these two evaluations, and if the difference between two evaluations exceeds 20% of the maximum marks, such a script shall be assessed by a third external examiner. The marks awarded to the script shall be the average of two higher marks out of the three evaluations.

10. Progress Reports and Department Research Review Meeting

1. Every candidate shall submit a half-yearly progress report to the RAC duly forwarded by the Research Supervisor. The half yearly Progress Report should cover, among others, the aspects such as the review of literature, data collected, techniques developed, progress in research, results and discussion of the work done including any findings, etc. If necessary, this progress report may be forwarded to the DRC by the RAC for further examination.

2. For the purpose of monitoring the progress of Research Works, all the research candidates including those who are on the current rolls of PU for Ph.D., are required to make power point presentations before the DRC after 2 years from the date of registration. At the time of review meeting, research scholars should submit hard copies of their research progress along with the research proposal in duplicate, in prescribed format with the signatures of the Supervisor and the Co-supervisor. Additionally, tangible output if any, such as: Concerned Research Publications/Oral Presentations/Poster Presentation in a Seminar/Conference or a Patent, etc. should be submitted.

3. If a candidate fails to submit two consecutive half-yearly progress reports in time and/or if the progress of the candidate is not satisfactory for two half-year periods, the Department Research Committee shall recommend to the RAC for the cancellation of his/her registration in consultation with the concerned Research Supervisor.

11. Compulsory Seminar Presentations

1. The candidates registered for the Ph.D. Programme (Full-Time & Part-Time) should give a minimum of two (2) Seminars as follows, under the chairmanship of the Head of the Department and in presence of the DRC.
2. I Seminar (Research Design Seminar): Soon after the Pre-Ph.D. examination/within one-year from the date of registration. The theme pertaining to the Seminar shall be on the Methodology, Sample Questionnaire and Objectives of Study. It will be a comprehensive literature review of the research topic and the plan of work. This seminar shall be conducted in the main Campus Department where the candidate is registered.

3. II Seminar (Pre-Submission Seminar): It shall be held at least three months before the submission of thesis. This seminar deals with the entire Ph.D. of his/her work carried out by the candidate and is presented in the Department where he/she is registered and any feedback, comments and suggestions from the participants be included in the final manuscript of the thesis. The draft copy of the Ph.D. thesis must be available during this presentation.

4. The presentation of the above two seminars shall be certified by the Head of the Department, Chairperson-BoS, and the Research Supervisor of the candidate and two certificates (Research Design Seminar, and Pre-Submission Seminar) must be enclosed at the time of thesis submission.

12. Publication of Research Papers

For the candidate to submit the thesis for Ph.D. programme, he/she shall publish one (1) research paper from his/her research findings of Ph.D. programme (peer-reviewed refereed national or international journal which has to be enclosed to the thesis) and two (2) paper presentations in (International/ National) conferences or seminars. The candidate has to produce the evidence of the same in the form of the reprint/certificate before the submission of thesis for adjudication. The research papers shall be enclosed in the thesis as an Appendix. In the journal papers and conference papers the research scholar’s name must be as the first author. In case the supervisor/co-supervisor is first named author, the research scholar’s name must be the next. The candidate can also submit the thesis, if he/she has at least one recognized patent rights, whose evidence and details are to be enclosed. (Mere filing for Patent will not be considered).

13. Modification of Topic of Research and the Title of Ph.D. Thesis

1. The RAC may permit the modification in the topic of research, provided the candidate has applied for it within one year from the date of admission or before he/she passed the Ph.D.
course work examination, whichever is earlier. His/her request must be recommended with due justification by the Research Supervisor and the Research Committee of the concerned Department in the prescribed form. However, such a modification is permitted only once. Any change in the topic of research shall not be permitted after the candidate has passed the Ph.D. course work examination.

2. The RAC may permit the modification in title of the Ph.D. Thesis. The candidate’s request must be recommended with due justification by the Research Supervisor and the Research Committee of the concerned Department in the prescribed form. However, such a modification is permitted only once.

3. Candidates seeking the change of Topic of research or the Title of the thesis have to pay the prescribed fee for each of the above.

14. Extension of Registration

1. The registration of a research scholar whether Full-Time or Part-Time shall automatically stand cancelled after the expiry of 6 years. Candidate can seek extension of his/her registration as Ph.D. scholar, one year at a time, (a maximum of two (2) such extensions for a full-time and one (1) such extension for a part-time scholar) provided that he/she has been continuously engaged in active research, the progress of the research work in the previous years has been satisfactory as certified by the supervisor(s), and that he/she has no dues in the library/department / college as certified by the concerned authority.

2. Any candidate seeking extension of registration shall submit a written request, along with the progress report of the work done and paid the prescribed fee, duly recommended by the supervisor(s), the chairperson, and the Head of the concerned Department in the University. The request must be submitted to the RAC at least two months before the expiry of the registration period, failing which the request for extension is liable for rejection.

15. Submission of Ph.D. Thesis

1. Research Scholars registered for Ph.D. programme Full-Time/Part-Time shall be allowed to submit the thesis in not less than three (3) years (Full-Time) and five (5) years (Part-Time) from the date of registration, subject to passing of Pre-Ph.D. examinations and research publications as stipulated. The Vice-Chancellor may, however, relax this condition up to a maximum of one year if he is satisfied by the reasons mentioned for not completing the work in stipulated time after obtaining the opinion of a Committee constituted for this purpose.

2. A research scholar, full-time or part-time, whose registration has expired/ has been cancelled, is not eligible to submit the thesis.

3. Full-Time/Part-Time Candidates should complete the research work within a maximum period of 6 years. They should pay tuition fee until the end of the year in which the thesis is submitted. If the Tuition Fee is not paid as per rules, penalty may be levied. If Tuition Fee is not paid continuously for two years, the registration will be cancelled.

4. Early Submission: If a Full-time research scholar desires to submit a Ph.D. Thesis prior to the completion of three years, he/she should satisfy the following criteria:

i) Completed two years of regular research work in the concerned department. The Vice Chancellor may however, relax this to a maximum period of one year if he is satisfied completely by the reasons for early submission.

ii) Published at least three (3) International Journal papers.

iii) Has an outstanding contribution and recommendations of the DRC.

iv) Has valid reasons thereof for early submission and he/she should have passed the prescribed Pre-Ph.D. Examinations.

5. Late Submission: If the candidate fails to submit thesis within stipulated period, his/her registration will be cancelled. However, depending on the progress of the work and as per the recommendation of the DRC, permission for submission of Thesis may be given with a penalty and approval from the Vice Chancellor based on the merit of the case.

6. On completion of the Ph.D. programme, every candidate shall submit the thesis which shall be a distinct contribution to the subject and afford evidence of originality and scholarliness shown either by the discovery of new facts or by the exercise of independent critical analysis. It shall be satisfactory as regards literary presentation and shall be worthy of publication whether in full as submitted or in an abridged form.

7. For ensuring originality of submitted content, the thesis will be checked by Anti-plagiarism software. After completion of pre-submission seminar, a soft copy of the thesis in word format should be brought along in person to the RAC and have it checked before binding and sending it to the examination section. If any text strings/figures are found to be copied or dubious without proper acknowledgement of the source, the thesis has to be thoroughly revised. In such event the revised soft copy of the CD must be submitted within one month from the date of checking with anti-plagiarism service. The stipulated percentage permissible includes the candidate’s own publications and presentations. A soft copy of the thesis must also be submitted with all the modifications and corrections made in the thesis after pre-submission seminar and anti-plagiarism check.

8. Five Hard-bound copies of the thesis incorporating a certificate from the Supervisor to the effect that the thesis is an original work of the candidate and a certificate by the candidate to the effect that the thesis either in part or full does not constitute any part of any thesis / dissertation / monograph submitted by him / her or any other person to this or any other University/Institute.
The candidate is also required to submit two soft copies (CD) of the thesis. A candidate may submit the thesis any time during one month before or after the expiry of the stipulated period of research.

9. A candidate may utilize for his or her thesis, the contents or any work which he or she may have already published on the subject, but has not submitted the whole or any substantial part thereof for which a degree has been conferred on him/ her of this or any other University.

10. The thesis in all subjects shall be written and submitted only in English, except in language subjects where the candidates shall have the option of writing it either in English or in the language concerned. Where the thesis is in a language other than English, a detailed summary of the same in English may also be submitted.
11. Every candidate shall apply to the Controller of Examinations on a prescribed form for submission of thesis along with submission fee. It shall be submitted duly filled-in and accompanied by five (5) Hard-bound copies of the thesis printed along with the following:

a) Five (5) copies of Synopsis of the thesis (10 to 15 pages).
