

Dr. K. Raj Kumar

Controller of Examinations & Assistant Professor Department of Commerce,
Palamuru University, Mahabubnagar

Dr. K. Raj Kumar is working as Controller of Examinations and Assistant Professor in Palamuru University, Mahabubnagar.

He completed B.Com. from Kakatiya University. He completed M.Com. as specialization Finance from Osmania University Campus and qualified UGC-NET in the year 2006. He completed Ph.D. from the Department of Commerce, Osmania University in December 2016.

He has 18 Years of Teaching Experience. He has 14 years of PG and 04 years of UG teaching experience. He worked as Academic Consultant from 2006 to 2011 in various University PG Colleges. He is selected as Junior Accountant Grade-II Officer in AP Civil Supply Corporation in 2011. Later, He is selected as Degree College Lecturer and worked as Lecturer in Commerce at Government Degree College, Jammikunta from December-2011 to 2016. Now, He has been selected as Assistant Professor in Department of Commerce, Palamuru University in March 2016 and continuing his services in the Palamuru University, Mahabubnagar.

He published 20 National and International articles and attended 42 national and 08 International Seminars. He also attended Workshops, Training Programmes and FDPs in different places of the country. He organized national seminar, webinars and chaired sessions in conferences. He also contributed chapters for Distance Education of MGU and Osmania University. 04 Students were registered Ph.D. under his supervision. He worked as Head of the Department of Commerce, Additional Controller of Examinations at Palamuru University. He has life membership in Indian Commerce Association (ICA), Indian Accounting Association (IAA), Joint Secretary of TCA and General Secretary of FOCOL.